

Master of Arts in Political Psychology

Course Requirement Changes Effective Fall 2021

SPGS has made several changes to the course requirements for the MA in Political Psychology (MAPP) degree to allow students more flexibility in their electives.

These changes will apply to all students who begin the program in Fall 2021 or after.

Students who began the program in Fall 2020 or Spring 2021 can choose to follow the new course requirements or the previous requirements.

Previous Course Requirements	New Course Requirements (eff. Fall 2021)
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• PPS 501 Fundamentals of Political Psychology (3)• PPS 502 Cognition and Emotions in Political Thinking (3)• PPS 503 Prejudice, Stereotypes and Intergroup Relations (3)• PPS 504 Attitudes and Persuasion (3)• PPS 505 Biopolitics (3)• PPS 506 Experimental Design (3)• PPS 584 Internship (3)• PPS 550 Capstone (final semester)(3)• 6 credits of electives	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• PPS 501 Fundamentals of Political Psychology (3)• PPS 504 Attitudes and Persuasion (3)• PPS 506 Experimental Design (3)• PPS 550 Capstone (final semester)(3)• 18 credits of electives (can include Internship if desired)

These changes will not be live in the Interactive Plan of Study (iPOS) system until just before the Fall 2021 semester. Students who wish to complete their iPOS prior to that time, including Summer 2021 graduates, should email Jenna.Roelle@asu.edu for instructions. Fall 2021 graduates do not need to complete their iPOS until the beginning of Fall semester.

Please direct any questions or concerns to Jenna Roelle.