

MA in Global Security (MAGS) degree requirements

MA in Global Security

MA in Global Security, Cybersecurity concentration

MA in Global Security, Irregular Warfare concentration

Graduate certificate in Global Security and Competitive Statecraft

MA in Global Security 30 credits Core course: GSC 501 8 GSC 3-credit electives* GSC 563 is only for students in cyber concentration Culminating experience: GSC 550 GSC 550 (Capstone) is a full semester course	MA in Global Security, Cybersecurity concentration 30 credits Core course: GSC 501 4 GSC 3-credit electives, space permitting 4 required cyber courses: GSC 560, 561, 562, 563 GSC 560 is a prerequisite for GSC 563 Culminating experience: GSC 550 GSC 550 (Capstone) is a full semester course
MA in Global Security, Irregular Warfare concentration 30 credits Core course: GSC 501 4 GSC 3-credit electives* 4 required IW courses (choose any four) 510, 511, 571, 572, 573 GSC 598 Security and the Global Economy GSC 598 Thinking Beyond War GSC 598 Irregular Warfare GSC 598 Urbanization, Security and Conflict GSC 598 Adaptation and Military Innovation GSC 550 (Capstone) is a full semester course	Global Security and Competitive Statecraft certificate 15 credits (not a degree and no diploma) Core course: GSC 512 4 GSC electives (choose any four) GSC 503, 509, 561, 571, 572, 573 GSC 598 Urbanization Security and Conflict GSC 598 Adaptation and Military Innovation

*Seats in cybersecurity courses (GSC 560-562) will prioritize students in the cyber concentration degree; limited seats may be reserved for students in other MAGS degree-seeking programs. GSC 563 is only available to students in the cybersecurity concentration degree